

Changes to Foundation Syllabus

Communications by Amateur stations

[Replace existing 2.4, which does not have side note.]

- 2.4 Recall that messages may be passed on behalf of third parties as long as they do not relate to the business or financial affairs of any person.

[Replace side note and existing 2.8]

- Encoded messages 2.8 Recall that the transmission of messages that are encoded for the purpose of obscuring their meaning is not permitted except for the purposes specified in the Amateur LCD.

[Side note remains same, replace existing 2.14]

- Harmful interference 2.14 Recall that a licensee must not operate an Amateur station if operation causes harmful interference to radiocommunications.

[New side note against 2.15, replace existing 2.15, insert new 2.16 and new 2.17 and new 2.18, all three without side notes and renumber as shown below.]

- Use of amateur station
- 2.15 Recall that an amateur station cannot be used for financial gain.
- 2.16 Recall that the licensee of a Foundation amateur station may only permit a suitably qualified person to operate the licensee's station.
- 2.17 Recall that the licensee of a Foundation amateur station must not operate an amateur station using automatic or computer controlled mode.
- 2.18 Recall that the licensee of a Foundation amateur station must not operate an amateur station directly connected to a public telecommunications network and that the Internet is considered to be part of a public telecommunications network.

[Existing items 2.16, 2.17 and 2.18 to be renumbered 2.19, 2.20 and 2.21 respectively.]
